

Electronic IB Transcripts for universities in North America

Certain universities have elected to receive International Baccalaureate (IB) transcripts electronically. (Please see the list beginning on the next page.)

Before contacting us, please note the following:

1. Electronic transcripts are available to universities as soon as they are processed by the IB North America office and may be re-downloaded by the receiving institution numerous times.
2. Each institution decides on their own individual IB recognition policy and may have criteria for determining credit (i.e. minimum scores, higher level IB courses only, etc.) Failure to award credit does not mean your transcript has not been received.
3. Please check with the university in question to ensure they have downloaded your scores. (Give them all of your particulars - full name, exam session month(s)/year(s), birth date etc.) If they have downloaded your scores, credit for IB diplomas and certificates will be applied in due course according to the university's policy.
4. Universities that download transcripts only have access to records for the past five years. This means that if you graduated in 2002/03 or earlier, your transcript will be mailed to the university even if they are on the electronic list.
