Looking ahead…programme changes

The IBCC core is currently undergoing a minor curriculum review

When:
- 2014-2015

What:
- Curriculum review meetings with internal and external stakeholders lead by the Academic department
- All core components are being reviewed
- Results of the review will be published in 2015

Why:
- To ensure the IBCC core is fit for purpose for the future
- To enhance the value and impact of an IB education

IBCC Core

Approaches to learning:	Reflective project:	Community and service:	Language development:
Course will be renamed	Fundamental requirements will remain the same	Aligned with service learning in CAS	To remain unchanged
Content will be enhanced	Criteria will be updated	(as found in the new CAS guide scheduled for release Sept 2015)
Inclusion of ethics as a topic	Formats and requirements to be reviewed

IBCC programme model

DP courses in the IBCC:

- 4 course limit has been removed
- 1 DP online course limit has been removed (All IBCC schools are required to offer at least two face-to-face DP courses)

IBCC programme evaluation

Process:
- IB has contracted an IB educator to write the IBCC evaluation guide and the self study. The guide will be published and available to schools in March 2015.

Timeline:
- 2014- schools will be informed of evaluation/self study dates
- March 2015 - Evaluation guide published and made available to schools
- June 2015 - Schools begin self study process

Fee structure changes

The current IBCC annual fee is $1370

IBCC student fees

- *From the November 2014 examination session onwards, the IBCC will change from the current per capita fee to the standard assessment fee of the Diploma Programme (see: http://www.ibo.org/become/fees/assessmentfees).

Assessment fees for IBCC: There are two assessment fees.
- The candidate registration fee is paid once for each student to take one or more examinations in a particular examination session.
- The candidate subject fee is paid for each assessed subject taken by an individual student. There is no fee for the reflective project.

IBCC student fees

Fee	USD
Candidate registration fee	160
Candidate subject fee	110

An additional late fee will be incurred for a DP subject registration, reflective project registration or amendment to a subject, level or language after the first registration deadline. The late fee increases again after the second deadline

Schools receive the following services
•A comprehensive coordinator's handbook.
•Access to IB Answers by telephone or email
•Access to the IB information system (IBIS) for tasks necessary to administer student assessment
•A range of teacher feedback, including subject reports for each examination session

  1. Ask your students to sign up for the IBCC Alumni Network
      Students can register at: blogs.ibo.org/alumni/ibcc

  2. Ask your students to join the IB Alumni Advisory Council
      A description of the Alumni Council is available here: http://blogs.ibo.org/alumni/council/

      This year, the IB is reserving a seat for an IBCC graduate, providing a voice in developing the alumni network alongside peers from the DP programme. Any IBCC graduate may apply. Applications are due by 31 July 2014. Please forward this message to recent graduates and ask them to consider representing the IBCC on the IB Alumni Advisory Council.

  3. Encourage your students to build their own network
      Encourage students to build their own network as well, by selecting a class alumni ambassador and creating an alumni facebook or LinkedIn group to remain connected. If you need support, don't hesitate to contact us here: alumni.relations@ibo.org

IBCC Phase II

- 'In order for schools to be authorized for the IBCC, currently the IB requires prior or simultaneous authorization for the Diploma Programme. However, the IBCC will be made available to all schools as a standalone programme in the near future. A formal statement including logistics, timeline and costs will be made available by the IB later in 2014. '
