

Marine Science Deputy Examiner Responsible needed for the International Baccalaureate®

The International Baccalaureate® (IB) is currently seeking an experienced individual to take on the role of Deputy Examiner Responsible for its Marine Science course.

The International Baccalaureate® (IB) is a non-profit educational foundation offering challenging programmes for a worldwide community of schools. It is now represented in over 150 countries and in 5,000 schools. The IB provides an international pre-university curriculum and an international university entry qualification, which gives access to higher education on a worldwide basis. You may be interested to visit the public website at www.ibo.org for more details.

One of the characteristics of the IB's Diploma Programme is that students are required to study, as one of six subjects that constitute the diploma, one course from the "science" subject group.

The IB's Marine Science course is a standard level multidisciplinary subject, which encompasses natural sciences including biology, chemistry, physics, geology, and meteorology, as well as social sciences such as geography, economics, politics and history. El Niño, fishing rights, global warming, coral bleaching, ocean pollution, storm & tsunami preparedness and oil exploration are among the many current international issues that revolve around the oceans.

The duties of the Deputy Examiner Responsible include the setting and marking of examinations and may involve occasional (paid) travel to the IB Global Centre, Cardiff, UK.

Outline information about this role, as well as the application form and recruitment policy can be found at: <https://ibo.org/jobs-and-careers/become-an-assessment-ib-educator/become-an-ib-senior-examiner/ib-deputy-examiner-responsible-recruitment/>

Please note that this position is part-time, involves no relocation, and is usually undertaken in addition to existing work commitments. Examiners will be given clear instructions and be well supported throughout the process. We are seeking an experienced individual with the following background:

- Qualified to at least degree level in Marine Science or related subject
- Teaching experience
- Examining experience (desirable but not essential)

We would be very keen to hear from all individuals with the above experience.

If you wish to apply, or would like further information, please contact the Examiner Training and Recruitment Department by email (examiners@ibo.org).
