A better world through education

An IB education inspires young people to become lifelong learners, using their energy, conviction and positivity to engage with increasingly complex and interconnected global issues.

50years.ibo.org

Celebrating with the IB: