

IB MYP Assessment author recruitment policy

Version 1.4

26/10/2018

1. Document purpose

The purpose of this document is to specify the minimum requirements applicants must meet in order to be considered as an IB Assessment author for the Middle Years Programme (MYP). In addition, the document also outlines desirable qualities which may be taken into account during the appointment process.

2. Applicant requirements

The list below identifies the requirements an applicant must have in order to be considered as an IB Assessment author.

- Applicants must have a degree or equivalent in the subject (or a related subject) for which they are applying.
- Applicants must have a minimum of two years' experience teaching the subject (or a related subject) for which they are applying to students of 14 to 16 years of age.
- Applicants must have experience of teaching the MYP.
- Applicants must have the ability to communicate, read documents and write reports in English. (If specified in the vacancy details, French or Spanish will be the primary working language for that role.)
- Applicants must have a detailed, up-to-date knowledge of the subject for which they are applying.
- Applicants must be familiar with the principles and challenges of good assessment including the design of assessments.
- Applicants must demonstrate a high level of enthusiasm for the use of technology in assessment processes, including the use of eMarking tools and on-screen assessment.
- Applicants must demonstrate an understanding of and commitment to international education.
- Applicants must have no perceived conflict of interest from involvement with schools or students taking this assessment. Please refer to Assessment IB Educator conflicts of interest policy.
- If successful, the applicant must relinquish any IB Workshop leader, Online Facilitator, Programme Field Representative, DP Advantage Coach or Building Quality Curriculum role that they currently undertake.
- If successful, the applicant must also become an IB examiner in the subject for which they are appointed.

3. Desirable qualifications and experience

The list below provides information on the qualifications and experience that are desirable for an applicant to possess when applying to become an IB Assessment author.

- Experience as an examiner in the subject (or a related subject)
- Experience of assessment authoring
- Knowledge of inclusive assessment design

- The ability to read documents, write reports and mark candidates' work in languages other than English.

4. Essential administrative requirements

- Applicants must be available at pre-arranged times throughout the year to fulfil commitments, attend meetings and respond to queries in a prompt manner.
- Applicants must have access to the internet, via a broadband connection with a minimum speed of 256kbps (2Mbps minimum recommended), in a secure environment that is suitable for writing and reviewing confidential assessment material.
- Applicants must provide the IB with contact details for at least two referees. An applicant will not be appointed until the IB has received at least two satisfactory references directly from the referees listed.
- Applicants must have a bank account held in their own name. Payment will only be made into a bank account held in the post holder's name. Under no circumstances will payments be made to a third-party account, that is, an account held in the name of a relative, company/organisation or other representative.
- Applicants with bank accounts in the following countries/areas must receive payment in the local currency; (i) Canada, payments in Canadian Dollars (CAD), (ii) European "Eurozone" countries, payments in Euros (EUR), (iii) India, payments in Indian Rupees (INR), (iv) Singapore, payments in Singapore Dollars (SGD), (v) USA, payments in US Dollars (USD), (vi) United Kingdom, payments in British Pounds (GBP), (vii) Switzerland, payments in Swiss Francs (CHF).

5. Appointment principles

If an applicant meets the requirements stated in sections 2 and 4 the applicant will be considered for the post they have applied for.

During the recruitment process, references will be sought and applicants may be asked to undertake tasks or respond to questions within a set timeframe. Shortlisted applicants will be invited to an interview (which will normally be conducted using teleconferencing tools) on a mutually agreed date. The exact timeframe for appointments will be communicated during the recruitment process. The scope of work offered to successful applicant(s) is dependent on connections with IB world schools. The IB must comply with the laws and regulations of all countries in which it appoints IB educators.
